Sir

My mother has a very fine painting of the Virgin and Child. Purchased in Rome by Senator Rice in 1859 and by Senator Rice presented to my father now dead. My mother desires to see this picture if she can do so, and has been advised to write to in regard to it. She does not wish to sacrafice it and she would like you to see it and advise with her, and perhaps you can be of assistance to her in finding a purchaser.

The picture is at her house No 123 Boundary in this City.

Very Respectfully
James Rich.d Callan

Sir

Wishing to avail myself of the privilege kindly offered by the Board of Trustees to persons desiring to draw from and copy the paintings in the Corcoran Gallery of Arts, I hereby Solicit that privilege.

Being merely an amateur, my object is not to copy and paint a finished picture, my time as a physician being too limited and uncertain for that purpose, but to Sketch, paint and Study the beauties of a picture as they impress me most favorably.

I have read the regulations and very cheerfully will comply with them.

Very Respectfully

Wm MacLeod Esq Curator
Corcoran Gallery of Art

Dear Sir

Your favor of 31st ultimo just rec'd. I fixed no price on the Pulaski Bust, as you seemed to think but mentioned merely the Govt price, the Orphans Court appraisement and Dr Stone's estimate of its value. I left it for you to make an offer and thought I made it plain that the circumstances of the owner made it desirable for him to sell. If you will take it at what he gave for it $1000 you can have it. We are obliged to you for the offer to exhibit it at the Corcoran Gallery when it would not be seen to better advantage but as the owner must sell, he think, it can be seen by a purchaser as well when it is. I have a Philadelphia party in view to whom I shall address a letter if you conclude not to offer for it. I will say that the terms can be made to suit you. I will not be necessary to pay more than half cash, and you can have credit on the balance if you wish for any time you wish.

With thanks to yourself & Mr. Walter for your kind offer of exhibiting the same I am very truly Yours

Jas. A. Stuart
